Douro Valley Wine Tour from Porto

Peso da Régua, Vila Real, Portugal

A private Douro Valley wine tour from Porto, for up to 8 people. We pick you up at your hotel or Airbnb at 9:00 and drive about an hour and a half into the valley for a tasting at a family-run winery, then a long lunch stop and a second winery in the afternoon, with viewpoints over the river on the way back. Our guests have visited estates such as Quinta Vale D. Maria and H.O Winery; the final choice depends on the season and availability.
Price: from 350 € per group of up to 4 people - one price for the whole private tour, not per person. Larger groups up to 8 travel in a van.
Duration: about 10 hours, 9:00 to 19:00, door to door from your accommodation in Porto.
Included: door-to-door pickup and drop-off in Porto, visits to family-run wineries and scenic viewpoints, a flexible schedule and an English-speaking local guide. Not included: meals (including lunch) and the tasting fees at the wineries. A river boat trip can be added on request.
Douro Valley is one of the most stunning regions in Portugal, famous for its landscape of terraced vineyards and the Douro River, which meanders through the region. A tour of the Douro Valley offers the opportunity to explore centuries-old vineyards and traditional wineries, taste renowned wines such as the Port and the Douro, and admire spectacular views of the mountains and river. During the tour, visitors can also enjoy boat trips on the Douro, explore small picturesque villages, and learn about the region's rich history and winemaking culture. It is an experience that combines the tranquility of nature with the pleasure of wine tourism, being perfect for those looking for relaxation, gastronomy and high quality wines.
